THE WEEKLY NEWS

BY ALICE

Hello, as everyone knows, today is Remembrance Day. This day started 102 years ago - one year after World War One ended. It was originally called Armistice Day! This day can be celebrated by: wearing poppies, going to some of the memorials, speeches and services held at 11am. If you ask me, Remembrance Day is a pretty sad time as there were so many lives lost. With this in mind, I'm going to write down some things people can do for Remembrance Day.

You can: create a concert, this will be a fun way to commemorate people's effort, create a sidewalk memorial, just grab some chalk and let your mind go crazy, send a care package, this is a great way to put a smile on someone's face.

There are lots of ways that you can commemorate this very special day but if there's one thing that everyone should do, it's observing the 1 minute of silence at 11am, to show some respect for the sacrifices people made.

If you want, email me some photos or tell me what you did!

BELLY LAUGHS

Schnitzel's Jokes of the Week

A sergeant-major and two privates are walking through a city park and they find an antique oil lamp. They rub it and a genie comes out in a puff of smoke.

The genie says, "I usually only grant three wishes, so I'll give each of you just one."

"Me first! Me first!" says one of the privates. "I want to be in the Bahamas, driving a speedboat with a gorgeous wife."

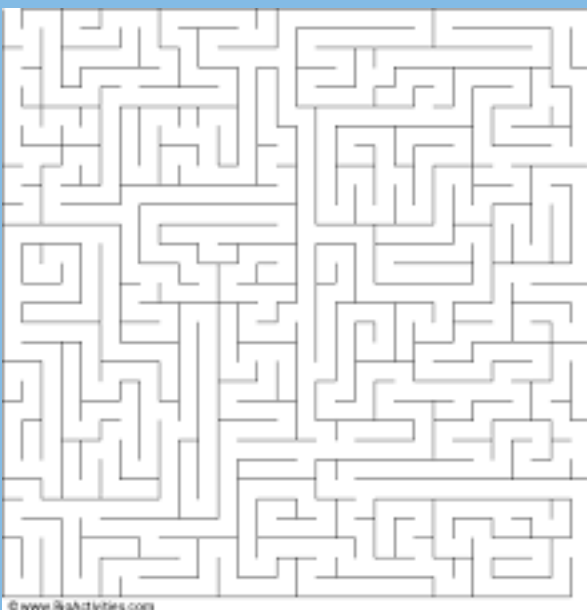

Poof! He's gone.

"Me next! Me next!" says the second private. "I want to be in Hawaii, relaxing on the beach with a servant on one side and my family on the other."

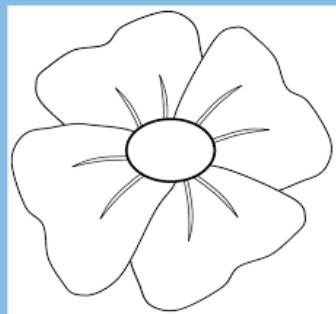

Poof! He's gone.

"You're next," the Genie says to the sergeant-major, "You can have anything you want. The Sargent says "I want those two privates back by lunch."
